

The Carmel Pine Cone

Police Chief Clyde Klaumann, above, points to the only heating unit in the present police station. The pot of water on top of the antiquated heater acts as a humidifier. The gas heater is located in the main room of the police station. The other two tiny rooms, including the chief's office, are not heated. In the room where the heater is are the police department's filing cabinets and uniform lockers. Above the latter is the only available storage space for items which are found and brought to the police station until claimed, also articles which have been stolen and must be held as evidence.

In fact, all the major business of the police department is conducted in between and around cabinets. When Chief Klaumann calls a meeting of his entire force of 13, there is no room for the police personnel to sit down.

The police department was located in its small and inadequate quarters 17 years ago—as a temporary measure.

Chief Klaumann, in spite of the facility in which his force is forced to use, maintains high standards of efficiency. He hopes the city council, Wednesday night, will decide to house his department in proposed new construction.

Asia Foundation Head Coming To Talk To World Affairs Group

The World Affairs Council of the Monterey Peninsula advises the Pine Cone that Dr. Haydn Williams, president of the Asia Foundation, will talk to members of the organization on May 27.

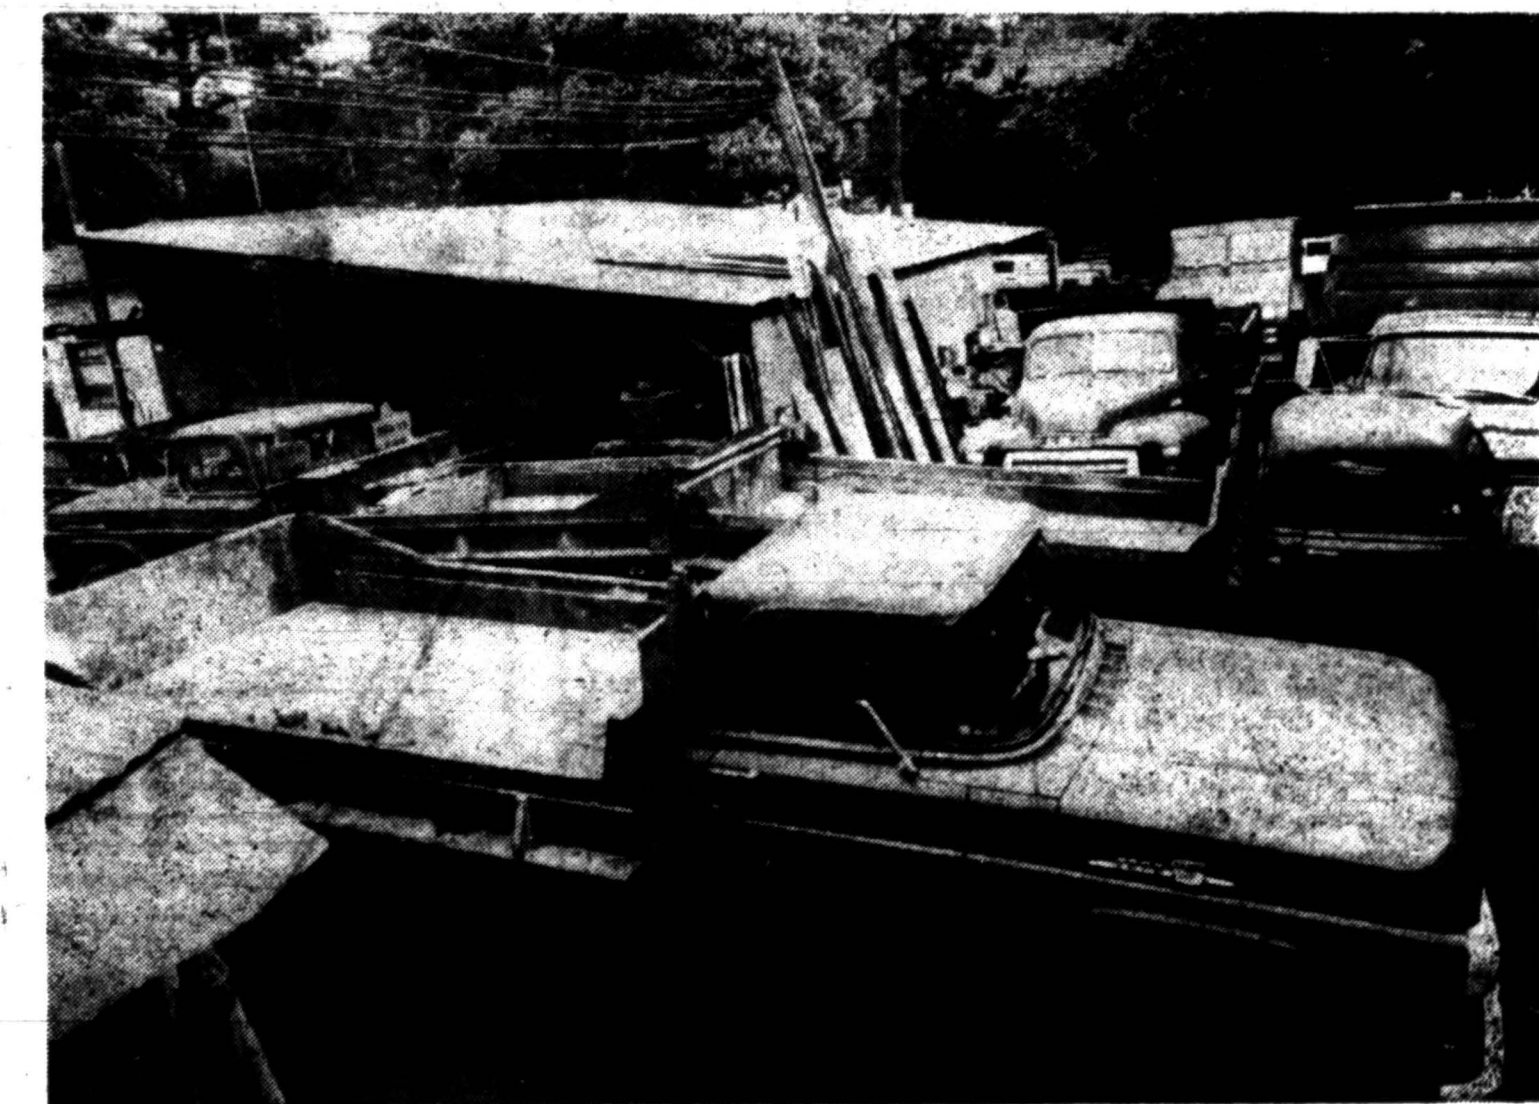

Dr. Haydn has just returned from Asia and his talk will be very current.

He formerly was professor of international relations at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy where he received his Ph. D. degree. He has also been a consultant to the U.S. State Department and the Department of Defense; deputy assistant to the Secretary of Defense; and a member of the U.S. National Commission for UNESCO.

FIVE BANDS FOR VACATION DANCES AT YOUTH CENTER

Five bands will provide music to the taste of young Carmelites for special dances at the Carmel Youth Center during the Easter vacation.

Saturday night, The Spiders will weave their webs over the dance floor, followed by The Shadows on Monday, The Continentals from MPC on Tuesday, The Chosen Few from Fresno on Wednesday and The Impacts on Thursday.

The shed, above, is one of two galvanized iron structures which comprise the present street department buildings behind the police station. The corporation yard is situated on the same two-lot site as the police station. In this limited space considerable ingenuity on the part of Street Superintendent William L. Askew Jr. and his staff is needed to park street department vehicles when they are not in use, as is illustrated in the picture. It also takes ingenuity to remove these large vehicles each working day. The efficiency of the street department is a credit to Mr. Askew considering the inadequate, ugly facility he is forced to use. The city council will consider construction of a new corporation yard on Wednesday night.

Clothing Taken From Shop Discovered In Garden

Yesterday, the owner of the Rose Brown Shop in Carmel Plaza, George Wilkinson, reported his shop had been broken into and expensive ladies' clothing, sues, furs and knits, all in sizes eight and ten, had been removed. Later in the day, the housekeeper at the Harold Zellerbach residence at Ocean and Scenic reported clothing had been tossed over a fence into the Zellerbach garden. The clothing proved to be the 21 garments, valued at $1,670, from the Rose Brown Shop.

Yesterday, also, police received a report that an antique lamp had been removed from Pine Inn bar on Monday.

Two girls, both juveniles, were cited to juvenile court yesterday on shoplifting charges. H. J. Randazzo, manager of the Purity store told police he saw one girl take three pairs of stockings, valued at 99 cents a pair. The other girl, according to Mr. Randazzo, took two fruit pies, value 15 cents each. He followed the girls outside the store and had them in custody when the police arrived.

Trustees Request Taxpayers Group To Present Plan

Disappointed, but determined to provide the best education possible despite the defeat of the override tax, members of the board of education, last night, considered eight areas in which expenditures may be cut, including elimination of the interscholastic athletic program, and considerable transportation of students.

The board decided to ask the Monterey Peninsula Taxpayers Association to present to them on April 13 the plan this organization announced it could provide for "better not costlier" education in statements opposing the override.

"Our first major interest should be children. Our primary responsibility is to provide them with the best intellectual adventure we can, unfortunately this will not be as good a program as we could have had," Superintendent Bair stated.

"Probably the most important factor in helping children to learn is good teachers. It will be a most difficult task to retain the best of our teachers, also obtain outstanding, not ordinary, teachers," he stressed.

Last night's special meeting of the board was scheduled as a study session on the salary scale, but because of the override defeat, (Continued on Page Sixteen)

City Clerk States Facts

By HUGH BAYLESS

To the Citizens of Carmel:

The question of a proposed new police station and corporation yard for Carmel is being hotly debated in the council chambers, on the street corners, and in letters to the editor. Unfortunately, there is more emotion than fact in many of the arguments. Neither a citizen nor a councilman can be expected to make an intelligent and meaningful decision without facts.

While I can neither take sides in an issue nor express my opinions, it is my duty and obligation as elected City Clerk of Carmel to provide facts.

Here then are the fundamental facts on the current issue:

In 1959, after many public hearings at which there were no objections from the public, the planning commission and the city council adopted a general plan. This general plan provides for municipal or civic use of the Junipero and Fourth Avenue property where the present city council is now considering the building of a new police station and corporation yard. This location is one of many considered during the past two years and is the one finally determined by both the planning commission and the city council as being the best site for the purpose.

On the recommendation of the planning commission, the city council ordered the preparation of a site development plan for the Junipero and Fourth site, to assure (Continued on Page Thirteen)

OVERRIDE DEFEATED

By two to one, voters of the Carmel Unified School District defeated a proposed 70-cent override tax at the polls on Tuesday. 40 per cent of the electorate turned out to cast 3,150 "no" votes and 1,479 "yes" votes.

Individual precinct tallies were as follows.

Precinct	Yes	No
Del Monte Lodge	44	133
Woods School	240	591
Sunset	200	750
Highlands	78	176
High School	389	702
Carmelo	218	332
Tularcitos	261	445
Big Sur Grange	49	21
Total	1,479	3,150

There were 160 absentee votes to be counted. Ten ballots cast Tuesday were voided.

Sunset Commission Hopes To Get Share of School Civic Center Tax

At the end of one year of service, Sunset commissioners Monday night considered possible first birthday presents for Sunset Center, providing the municipal purse is sufficiently filled when the city council holds 1966-67 budget session this summer, and one commissioner proposed means whereby, perhaps, $20,000 may be obtained to augment center funds next year.

Commissioners gave priority to fire protection needs at Sunset Center in their capital outlay budget discussion. Other proposals were 200 more seats in the auditorium, renovation of the men's room off the auditorium lobby, provision of both men's and women's rest rooms in the backstage dressing area and a fresh coat of paint for the inside of the auditorium.

Commissioner Ted Fehring outlined a plan whereby a portion of the civic center tax, collected according to state law by the Carmel Unified School District, might be allocated to Sunset Center. He suggested that two-sevenths of this ten cent tax, estimated at $20,000, might be obtained.

His proposal was based on: (a) an estimate of the assessed valuation of the school district as $70 million and that of the City of Carmel as $20 million; (b) the school district maintains no facility within the city limits; (c) the city maintains Sunset Center and thus provides the only auditorium for use by the public, and therefore is entitled to a share of the civic center tax.

Hugh Bayless, secretary to the commission, pointed out that according to the terms of the sale of Sunset by the school district to the city, the district has free use of the auditorium 50 days per year. These days are allocated by the school district to the Monterey County Symphony which qualifies for this use as a part of the adult school program. In effect, Mr. Bayless indicated, the city is subsidizing the Symphony project without recompense from the district for operation expenses for the 50 nights.

Sunset commissioners voted to ask for $20,000 from the school district in a letter to Superintendent Medill Bair. Should the search by the Carmel city attorney and the county counsel prove that, legally, the city could accept a portion of the civic center tax, commissioners decided to refer the matter to the city council for action before school district budget sessions.

Chairman Peter Dyer announced that a questionnaire asking for reactions to the acoustics in Sunset Center auditorium was to be sent to all organizations belonging to the Arts Co-ordinating Council of Monterey County.

Commissioner Rear Admiral C. W. Fisher brought up rezoning of Sunset Center now classified in residential use. Admiral Fisher and Mr. Fehring were appointed by Mr. Dyer to represent the Sunset Commission at joint studies with

Saidee's Poor Pine

Just how the pine tree planted in honor of the late Saidee van Brower, Carmel city clerk for many years, is ever going to get the gentle blessing of water for its roots is a problem any tree lover hates to contemplate. This pine which was planted by the Carmel Pine Cone, when the paper was located on the east side of Dolores between Ocean and Seventh opposite Carmel's old upstairs city hall, has cement sidewalk surrounding it right up to its bark. The throttling construction was installed during recent removal of unsightly utility poles in this block.

The Pine Cone planted the tree because Saidee deplored the fact that when she looked out of city hall windows no pines, which she dearly loved, could be seen on Dolores.

The tree has bravely struggled through the years and bears a great scar as the result of a one-sided encounter, presumably, with some automotive vehicle. Now, unless its roots can spread far enough to gain water from some open ground in the area, its battle to survive will end... and a non-native-Carmel tree in a two-by-two foot planter will take its place.

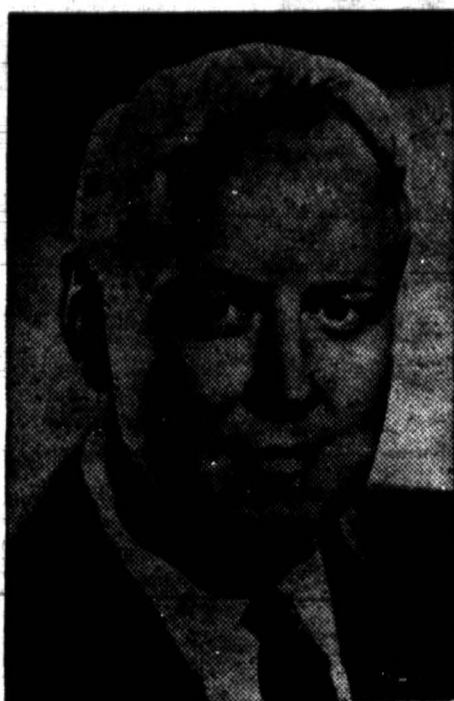

Saidee's poor pine.

planning commission members on the rezoning matter.

Mrs. Barbara Norberg, chairman of the Carmel Arts Commission, obtained the co-sponsorship of the Sunset Commission for a concert on April 23 by the Henri Temianka Octet in Sunset auditorium. She did not, however, obtain free use of the auditorium. Sunset commissioners agreed that the arts commission should pay the minimum charge, $50, which covers the cost of operating the auditorium for one night. They had no other alternative; they maintained, according to their policy pertaining to performances for which admission is charged, also to present a true cost accounting picture of operating Sunset Center.

The octet will come here as a cultural event presented by the California Arts Commission which will bear $600 of the cost of the performance. The Carmel Arts Commission will have to pay $400. "I hope we don't go in the hole," Mrs. Norberg observed.

Dr. James Gilman told other Sunset commissioners that the cost of maintaining and repairing Sunset Center during its first year as a city facility will exceed funds

An explanation of how to develop "spiritual perception" will be presented by Christian Scientist Paul A. Erickson, C.S.B., at a public lecture in Carmel on April 7. The lecture is titled "The Value of a Spiritual Outlook," and is being sponsored by First Church of Christ, Scientist, Carmel, at 8:00 p.m. in the church auditorium, Monte Verde Street near Sixth Avenue. There is no charge or collection, and everyone is welcome.

Mr. Erickson, who once served as chaplain's assistant at the United States Naval Academy, gave up a position as manufacturer's agent in Chicago several years ago to become a recognized practitioner in the Christian Science healing ministry. He is also an authorized teacher of the religion, and is currently on tour as a member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

OAL POLY HONORS

Three Carmel students were among those named to the dean's honor list for the fall quarter at California State Polytechnic College. They are Rose Marie Garoutte, English major; Thompson F. Keesling, a major in architecture and architectural engineering; and Rolf Eric Lange, business administration major. The students were recognized for having compiled an overall grade average of "B" or better in programs of 12 or more units of study.

budgeted but that transfer of excess funds in other budget categories will offset this unexpected high cost. For example, $5,000 was budgeted for the cost of utilities. At the end of the fiscal year, he estimated, only $3,000 of this sum will have been spent.

GOP Spring Bonnet Luncheon On April 6

Robert H. Finch, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor of California, will be the guest speaker at the Carmel Republican Women's Spring Bonnet luncheon on April 6 at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club. Mrs. Kenneth Macpherson, program chairman, will introduce the candidate, who will present information on his background and abilities and tell why he believes these will serve him in the successful administration of the office.

To add a bit of humor and fun, the ladies are requested to wear their most fetching spring bonnets, or something of a humorous or political style. Karl V. Christerson, Earl Hofeldt and Mark Raggett will be judges for the best prizes to be awarded for the best in each class, one for the most beautiful, the funniest and the cleverest political one.

Mrs. Ralph Castagna, hostess chairman, has as her assistants Mrs. Charles Leavitt, Mrs. Fred Godwin, Mrs. Madeleine Powers Leoni, Mrs. Harry Lusignan, Mrs. Rollo Payne, Mrs. Mark Raggett, Mrs. James Rodda, Mrs. Robert Stanton, Mrs. Judson Sherrill, Mrs. Mark Thomas and Mrs. Kenneth Walker. They will be selling chances on a $50 U.S. Savings Bond at 50 cents each or three for $1.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock, preceded by a social hour beginning at 11:30. The cost is $2.75 including tax and tip. Reservations should be made not later than Monday with Mrs. Giles Short (372-9026) or Mrs. F. E. Houghton (372-1321). Those needing transportation may phone Mrs. John Julian (624-7798).

The public is invited to hear Mr. Finch following the luncheon at about 1:30 p.m.

Red Cross Nears Fund Drive Goal

With a goal of $28,796 to meet, the Carmel-by-the-Sea chapter of the American Red Cross has collected almost $20,000. Not all the returns are in, owing to the onslaught of the flu bug, but the volunteer workers are still at work. The Red Cross is urging anyone who has been missed in the Golden Anniversary Fund and Membership Drive to make his or her donation at Red Cross headquarters. The greater demands on the Red Cross for services to the military at home and abroad make meeting the goal essential.

Chairman Frederick K. Duhring states that the fund drive will continue until the required amount is reached.

CWDC Easter Bazaar

The Carmel Women's Democratic Club promises everyone a day of fun and great bargains at the annual Easter Bazaar tomorrow from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Cypress Club on Lincoln Street between 7th and 8th.

Chairman of the book table, with a collection ranging from paperbacks to rare first editions, is Mrs. Henriette Millard of Carmel Valley. Mrs. Harwell Dyer and Mrs. William Taylor, also of the Valley, are in charge of collecting new and nearly new apparel. Other tables of varied merchandise will include jewelry, handcrafts, baked goods and a farmer's market of plants, canned goods, jams and jellies.

Promising to be a favorite spot is the artist's corner, where paintings donated by name artists will be sold at a fraction of their value.

The highlight of the bazaar will be a special luncheon featuring a Hungarian entree of schinken fleckerin, a favorite recipe of Mrs. Rudolph Alt of Carmel. Tickets for the luncheon, which will be served from noon to 1:30 p.m., are $1.75 and may be purchased at the door.

Small and large printing orders are quickly filled at The Pine Cone Press. Dial Carmel 624-3881.

Karen (Mrs. Robert Waldo) Hicks, center, admires the space-age designed clock which was presented to her by youth and adult board members of the Carmel Youth Center upon her retirement as president. With her are, left to right, Bob Shirley, current president; Dr. James Gilman, Lions Club representative; Gene (Bill) Bartlett, vice president; Mike Meheen, secretary-treasurer; and P. A. McCreery, board member at large.

Mrs. Hicks, affectionately known as "Mother Hen," resigned the presidency after two and a half years of service. Active with the Youth Center since its beginning in 1949, she has been an adult member-at-large since 1952 and was secretary-treasurer from 1952 until assuming the presidency. She will remain on the adult board as a member-at-large.

EDUCATIONAL TRIPS PLANNED

Mrs. Romaine Hill, Carmel High School English instructor, is one of 12 local educators chosen to participate in educational trips whose purpose is to gather information for developing a coordinated pre-occupational program and to observe distinctive instructional programs in other areas. The week-long trips are made possible by Monterey Peninsula College's receipt of a Ford Foundation travel grant.

Others chosen from Carmel are DeForest Sweeney, chairman of MPC's English department, and Philip Nash, MPC director of data processing; from Pebble Beach, Leon Fletcher, MPC coordinator of instructional services.

MPC staff members from Carmel Valley who will take part in the program are Stephen James, coordinator of technical-vocational education and director of building programs; Arthur Oswald, chairman, social sciences; John Briscoe, engineering instructor; and Mrs. Rosetta Smith, business instructor.

Nietos Had Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. August Nieto have had the pleasure of entertaining good friends of 20 years' standing, once their former neighbors in Long Beach. Dr. Victor Wilson, assistant superintendent in charge of business for the San Gabriel schools, and Mrs. Wilson arrived Saturday to spend four days as guests in the Nietos' residence at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club. Informal gatherings at their hosts' home and lots of golf were on the visitors' program.

New Safety Instructor

Phil A. Cordrey of Carmel Valley has been appointed a hunter safety instructor by the National Rifle Association of America.

The appointment of the new instructor was granted after the successful completion of a test based on his knowledge of firearms and safe hunting practices. A background of hunting experience is also required. A NRA hunter safety instructor may conduct local classes in the operations of firearms, safe gun handling and demonstrate the techniques of shooting on the range and in the field.

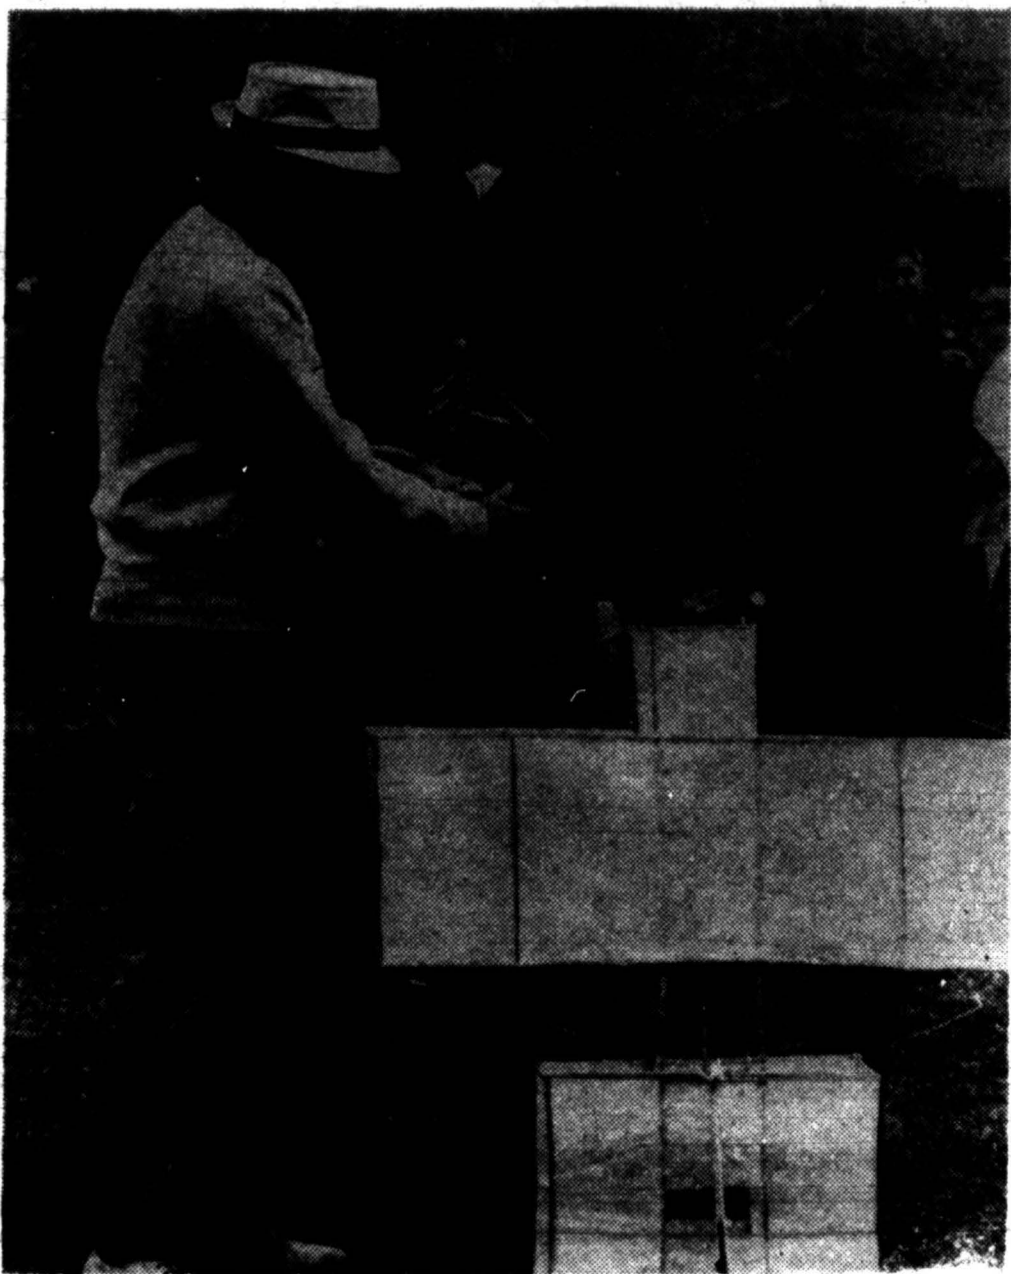

Visitors Helped Celebrate

Mrs. Richard Osborne of Pebble Beach entertained with a dinner party to celebrate her husband's birthday Saturday evening. Among the guests were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lithgow Osborne of Auburn, New York, who are currently visiting in Pebble Beach.

In honor of the visitors from New York, Mrs. Rody B. Holt was hostess at a party in her Carmel home, entertaining, among others, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dunne, who were weekend guests at Cypress Point Club.

Sassoons Visited Capitol

Mr. and Mrs. Steven Sassoon enjoyed a ten-day vacation and business trip in and about Washington, D.C., where they visited the White House and Congress and were greatly impressed with their treatment by Congressman Burt Talcott's office. While in the area, the Sassoons also traveled to see Williamsburg, Virginia. Commenting to the Carmel Rotary Club, Mr. Sassoon reported that a local program included "some fellow named Escoffier who spoke on 'Currently Popular Barbecue Recipes.'"

Bill Faulkner holds the kite which won the grand championship award in last Saturday's annual Carmel Kite Festival. Giving him the award is Don Lyon, member of the Carmel Lions Club which provided awards and co-sponsored the festival with the Carmel Unified School District's recreation department. The event at Middle School drew competitors from outside the Carmel area this year and was covered by a San Francisco daily paper.

Ron Wardle won the Willis White prize for the best international kite. The Ernest Calley prize went to Ted Roberts of Monterey. The Warehouse Gang took top adult high flying honors. Ginnie Drew entered the kite judged prettiest in the adult division. Other award winners from Carmel were: (eight years and younger) —Victoria Gilmore, high flying; Dana Schack and Kathleen Murphy, best workmanship; Tay Tousey and Elena Robinson, prettiest; (nine to 12 years) —Lee O'Hanin and Martha Lewis, high flying.

Bill Faulkner, in addition to the grand prize, won highest honors in the 13-15 year old group. All contestants constructed their kites.

Frivolous Fashion Fun

To a dash of spontaneity in presentation, add a good dollop of imagination and stir with a generous amount of madcap color and creative design. Thus might be described the recipe for the refreshing "Fashions for Fun" showing of Lilli Smith's collection of one-of-a-kind clothes which Mrs. Roy Woods gave at her home Sunday. Dozens of their friends gathered at the Woods' Pebble Beach home to sip sangria, eat dainty empanadas and listen to mariachis as lovely models moved through the crowd displaying Lilli's newest ideas.

While Mexico figures high in the inspiration of color and material of her fashions, Lilli (Mrs. F. Robert Smith) also employs other unusual combinations — heavy, iridescent upholstery fabrics, terry cloth and terry velour, sheer (and entrancing) see-through materials. Those familiar with her elegant velvet-with-patchwork evening skirts were hard put to choose between those glittering successes and some severe, sophisticated gowns, one with transparent wind-chime shells suspended in cutouts in the floor-length skirt. To go with all these fashions (many of the separates are worked out to mix-match), Lilli has made frivolous jewelry from cappa shells. Tiny figures, flowers, painted designs adorn enormous dangling earrings, pendants, and belts, each geared to complement the individual outfit.

More conventional, but equally clever in design, were the tennis dresses, beach wear and cover-up garments for beach and sunning.

The models who were so professionally "unprofessional," adding to the enjoyment of the afternoon, were Mrs. Elizabeth Touche and Mrs. Lula Maharas (who also

DOYLE CLAYTON ENGAGED

Susan Segali, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Segali of Monterey, will become the bride of Doyle Clayton of Carmel in a mid-August ceremony at the Monterey Presbyterian Church. With the traditional box of candy being passed, Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sisters of Sue, their past president, learned of the engagement last Friday night.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Monterey High School where she was active in student affairs and was Girls State representative and song leader in her senior year.

She received her bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Pacific in January and is currently enrolled at Golden Gate College, San Francisco, in preparatory courses for the C.P.A. examination.

Sue is the sister of Tim Segali of Monterey and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Nickel of Pacific Grove.

Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack T. Clayton of Carmel. His sister, Phyllis, is now teaching at Beale Air Force Base and makes her home in Yuba City. His grandmother, Mrs. Lynn H. Clayton, is a resident of Salt Lake City.

At Carmel High School, from which he graduated in 1961, Doyle was the blanket award winner in sports, Boys State representative, also served as class and student body president.

He graduated with honors from Fresno State College last June and will receive his master's degree in industrial arts, as well as a general secondary teaching credential, this June. While working toward his M.A., Doyle is a full time design and crafts instructor at Fresno State, where he is affiliated with Epsilon Pi Tau fraternity.

Back To 'The Farm'

After six months at Stanford-in-Italy, with occasional chances to travel about Europe, Stanford-in-California doesn't seem very exciting to Jane Martin and Louise LaMothe, who reported at the Stanford campus Monday after a short visit to their homes here. Jane is a daughter of Mrs. E. Aldwell Martin of Carmel and Louise's parents, are Dr. and Mrs. Daniel LaMothe of Pebble Beach.

Before leaving Florence, the girls were part of a student group which enjoyed a trip to Sicily and Capri, among other places. Jane and Louise spent their last weekend in Rome, then traveled to Paris for their return flight to the United States.

Woodingtons New Residents

A distinguished addition to the community is Dr. Donald D. Woodington, superintendent of the new Monterey Peninsula Unified School District, who, with his family, is making his home on San Juan Road in Carmel Woods. Mrs. Woodington, a former coloratura soprano of the concert stage, recently returned from a visit with her family in her native England.

The Woodingtons have two sons, Robert, a student at Walter Colton Junior High School in Monterey, and Bradley, who is enrolled at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

The family came here from Inglewood, where Dr. Woodington was superintendent of schools. A golf enthusiast, he is also a major in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve.

Wayfarer Women Hear Artist

Helen B. Dooley, artist and professor of art now on leave from the University of the Pacific, was guest lecturer at the March meeting of the Wayfarer Guild, business women's group of the Church of the Wayfarer. The group met at the artist's recently established Dooley Gallery.

In her lecture, "How To Look at Paintings," Miss Dooley traced briefly the roots of contemporary painting from Constable to the present, illustrating with color prints and oil replicas of masterpieces the influence of various phases of art. The audience viewed a large display of contemporary paintings in the gallery and entered into a lively discussion after the lecture.

The guild's president, Miss Mary Illich, presided over a short business meeting before the lecture and an inspiring devotional talk was given by Miss Florence Smythe. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Laverne Ostermeyer and Mrs. Raymond Houston.

Featured In Film

Mrs. Leslie Dixon and her daughter Jodie Ann, members of The Church of the Wayfarer, have been featured in a new Graded Press filmstrip, "Learning About God's Universe," prepared by the board of education of the Methodist Church in Nashville. Designed for grade unit III-IV in the church school, the filmstrip will be used nationally.

Frosts Have New Son

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Frost of Carmel became parents for the third time on March 13, when their new son, Robert George, was born at Community Hospital. The Frosts' daughters, Gail and Cynthia, are reported to be delighted with the family addition.

The new baby is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Frost of Topsfield, Massachusetts, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ritz of Riverside.

Nancy Bibb In Afghanistan

The Peace Corps has claimed the service of another young Carmelite, Nancy Bibb, who flew to Kabul, Afghanistan, Friday to begin her final six weeks of training for a Peace Corps pilot program in that country. A January graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, Nancy has already undergone intensive training at the University of Texas, where the volunteers attended 12 hours of classes daily, six hours being devoted to study of the language under the instruction of Afghan instructors.

The young volunteer will teach English in a secondary school in Afghanistan, one of the few countries which shares in Peace Corps expenses. The government is reported to be most anxious to have young women from the United States to help the native women adjust to their recent emancipation from "purdah" and the new status it has brought them.

Before starting her journey, Nancy was able to spend a week here with her parents, Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. E. Bibb, who report that their daughter was thrilled and excited with her assignment.

Firkusny And Gosling Get Standing Ovation

BY JACK BENSON

The Monterey County Symphony Orchestra, under its music director, John Gosling, presented concerts here and in Salinas last week. World renowned pianist Rudolph Firkusny was guest artist in a performance of Beethoven's Concerto for Piano and Orchestra in E Flat Major (Emperor).

Firkusny, whose reception in the community had been auspicious, was saved until last on the evening's program. His entrance on stage following the intermission was brisk and to the point, a quality which characterized his playing throughout. He literally tore into the "Emperor," making its opening chords a thunderous proclamation. A fine rapport between Maestro Gosling and Firkusny was immediately felt, enhanced by the alert response and expertise of the orchestra.

Rudolph Firkusny's approach to Beethoven, on this occasion, could be described as full tilt. His no-holds-barred attack made certain passages in the music sound rushed, but his deft professionalism and surging power simultaneously overcame such moments and crowned him victor on the spot. A standing ovation recalled Firkusny and Gosling to the stage several times.

The concert opened with a sensitive performance of a Choral Prelude on the Medieval plainsong "Veni, Sancte Spiritus" by Richard Yardumian. In this, the wind players of the orchestra shone, with a gorgeous short English horn solo by Melvin Buffo and equally excellent playing by Mary Rosalie Haslett, harp, Raymond Fabrizio, flute, Richard Grauel, oboe, Ernest Smith, trumpet, and Carlberg Jones, French horn.

A devoted and inspired reading of Mozart's "Jupiter" Symphony was given next, in which Maestro Gosling displayed his fine command of the orchestra and meticulous adherence to Mozart's score. Aside from occasional problems involving clarity in string ensemble, this performance of the "Jupiter" takes its place alongside other memorable achievements this seas-

Cairn Terriers And Owners Form Club

Cairn Terriers and their owners are invited to join the newly-formed Monterey Bay Cairn Club which was organized at the Carmel home of Marcia Haskell on March 13.

Purpose of the club is to encourage proper training, breeding, and showing of Cairn Terriers, a rare breed of dog from the Isle of Skye in Scotland.

The Cairn is the smallest of the terriers, having been bred for the select purpose of rushing game out of rocky cliffs.

According to Mrs. Carolyn Camacho, president of the club, this breed, although of the terrier clan, is not boisterous, attends fairly much to its own business, and is very loving, making a splendid house dog.

Attending the organizational meeting, in addition to Mrs. Camacho and Miss Haskell, were Mrs. Leslie Clark, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Hugh Smith, Miss Vicki Camacho, Miss Ginnie Smith, Miss Claire Cross, Miss Lenore Foster and seven terriers.

Anyone wanting further information regarding the club, or who is interested in joining, should call the secretary, Mrs. Clark at 624-5875, or write to Rt. 3, Box 648.

on (Brahms, Ravel, Tchaikowsky) and sustains our feeling that the Monterey County Symphony is realizing greater and greater musical magnitude under Director John Gosling.

TOWN HOUSE PROGRAM

Colored slides of Death Valley will be shown by Peter Kutschera of Carmel Valley at the Carmel Foundation Town House on Wednesday at 1:30 and 3 p.m. Mr. Kutschera took pictures of places of interest while traveling to Reno, Stove Pipe Wells, Las Vegas and Bakersfield recently with the Monterey Peninsula Senior Tours group.

Tea will be served at 4 p.m. and all interested persons are welcome.

Following the annual meeting of the Carmel Foundation March 16, members visited Haseltine Court for an open house in the most recently acquired unit, named for the late Miss Orre B. Haseltine, of the senior citizens' organization. Shown above are some of the residents of the 12-studio apartment complex at the southeast corner of Fifth and Lincoln. They are, standing from left to right, Miss Anne Joad, Miss May Stanley, Miss Dorothy Mason and Mrs. Louisa Stanley. Seated below are Mrs. Stephanina Krasowska, Mrs. Jean McGill, manager of Haseltine Court, and Mrs. Cruden Walker. Other residents not pictured are Mrs. Ruth Moffett, Mrs. Roma Donovan, Miss Gloria Rollin, Miss Ebba Fisk and Mrs. Anita Spencer.

At the annual meeting, George O. Carlson was named president of the Carmel Foundation. Others elected were Mrs. John H. Cubbon, vice president; Leet W. Bissell, treasurer and Mrs. Carl E. Menneken, secretary. Mrs. William P. Byrnes and Miss Florence L. Beard were chosen as new members of the board of directors. Re-elected to the board for three-year terms were Dr. Robert Aurner, Mr. Bissell, Frank Groves, Mrs. Walter E. McCloud and Mrs. Hans Von Richter.

James Blee To Head Boys Camp

Perry-Mansfield Boys Camp directors Portia Mansfield and Helen Smith have announced that James Blee, former Sunset School teacher, will head the camp which is now entering its third season at Steamboat Springs, Colorado. Mr. Blee, a dedicated conservationist, organized the camping program for the Carmel schools at Big Sur State Park in 1950.

Planned for boys of seven to 14 years of age, the camp features natural science, horsemanship and exploration of Colorado mountain and canyon country. Fishing, swimming, informal sports and coaching in drama are included in the program which runs from June 28 to August 9. The care of animals and pets is a part of the daily participation in ranch life and social activities are also provided.

The Perry-Mansfield School of the Theatre and Camps for Girls are now owned by Stephens College and the 1966 summer program will be carried on under the direction of Alice Koontz, for three years a member of the original staff.

Charlotte Perry will continue to teach acting techniques and will direct one production. Portia Mansfield will direct the dance seminar for teachers and advanced students of dance from August 20 through August 24, also resume her work on motion pictures of dance and horsemanship. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Koontz at Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri.

Party Plans

By Phyllis Jervey

What spur of the moment decision usually works out to perfection? In the case of Major and Mrs. Foley, the longer they were stationed at Fort Dix, New Jersey, the more they longed to return to Carmel. So on a short leave, they drove across the country, spent two days in our midst, bought Mission Fields property, approved plans and specifications for their future home. The house was built and rented. Seven years later four Foleys moved into their sight-unseen house and were truly thrilled.

Proving Susan Foley's practical ingenuity, when Fred brought back a bolt of brocade from Japan, his resourceful wife used it as curtains for countless temporary Army quarters. Without touching scissors she unwound, decorated the windows and rewound the delicate cloth of gold upon departure. From Paris to Fort Dix, from Schenectady to Carmel this durable fabric became a symbol of encouragement.

With Major Foley at Fort Ord and the two young sons absorbed in their own activities, energetic Susan was restless. Used to entertaining constantly, and on a shoe-string before pay day, the Foleys bought the Party Carousel in the Tuck Box patio on Dolores Street. And what a delight this colorful shop has been to all of us!

Susan has a natural talent to create distinctive decorations, party favors, table settings and patio arrangements for wrought iron glass-topped furniture.

Easter parties are now being planned with originality. Clever egg cups with fetching caps to keep bald egg heads warm make unusual place cards. Susan's driftwood "traveling tree" has been a part of all their tours of duty. Its artistic little branches now are hung with miniature Mexican baskets. Small sombreros hold non-jumping jelly beans. The international theme is carried out in woven mats in brilliant south-of-the-border colors. Matching or contrasting plastic covered plates and heavy paper napkins with exciting patterns create an Easter patio party with the greatest of ease.

So dash on over to the Party Carousel and become as enthusiastic as we are. For nourishment the Foley boys, Christopher, 13, and Stephen, 12, have suggested their favorite menu.

CARMEL EASTER SUPPER

FOR BOYS

Fruit-on-Sticks
Breezy Soup Fritos
Mom's Meat Balls
Tuna Pie Pickups
Carrot Raisin Slaw
Carousel Cake
Cokes

FRUIT-ON-STICKS

Alternate canned pineapple chunks with unpeeled red apple cubes, canned mandarin orange sections and large grapes on skewers. Dip these in sour cream, mayonnaise and chopped pimiento mixed into a smooth sauce.

BREEZY SOUP (Serves 8)

One can each of condensed cream of chicken, cream of mushroom and cream of asparagus soup; 1 cup milk; 1 tsp. curry powder, salt and paprika to taste; ice cubes.

Put all ingredients into electric blender and whirl until foamy. Serve cold in insulated polystyrene cups. This doesn't seem like regular soup to "young men" but more like a different kind of milkshake. Army brats have become taste-conscious due to cosmopolitan tasting. We are all for it.

MOM'S MEAT BALLS (Serves 8)

One and one-half lbs. ground round beef; ½ lb. ground pork or ham; ½ cup packaged bread crumbs; ¼ tsp. ground nutmeg; 1 tbsp. powdered chocolate; 1 egg; 2 tbsps. chili sauce; onion and garlic salt to taste, dash of Accent.

Mix well together and shape into balls the size of walnuts with dampened palms of hands. Saute a few at a time, in large heavy iron skillet. Brown on all sides turning with tablespoon. Be careful not to break them up. Remove meat balls and stir enough flour into drippings to start forming gravy. Add water or milk for right consistency. Put all together into earthenware casserole and keep hot over candle-warmer or electric plate. Provide spears, then each to his own! If any leftovers should be by a long chance be around, just serve them for breakfast. They'll disappear!

TUNA PIE PICKUPS (Makes 16)

Twelve saltine crackers; ½ cup milk; 2 cans (each 7 oz.) grated or flaked tuna; 1 small onion, grated; ½ tsp. salt and paprika each; dash of pepper; 1 package pie crust mix.

Soak crackers in milk until soft. Blend in tuna, onion, salt, paprika, and pepper. Roll pastry thin; cut into 3-inch squares. Divide tuna mixture evenly on pastry squares. Fold pastry over tuna; press edges together to seal. Slash design on top with fork. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in 400 F. oven until light brown. Serve hot or cold with vegetable relishes. Fine finger food.

CARROT RAISIN SLAW (Serves 8)

Two cups grated raw peeled carrots; 1 cup seedless raisins; 1 tsp. sugar; ¼ tsp. salt; ½ cup mayonnaise; ½ cup crumbled blue cheese; lettuce cups.

Stir dressing into carrots and raisins, tossing lightly. Serve in lettuce cups.

CAROUSEL CAKE

Two and three-quarter cups sifted cake flour; 2 tps. double-acting baking powder; 1½ tps. salt; 1½ cups sugar; 1 cup shortening; milk; 1 tsp. each orange and almond extract; 3 eggs and 1 egg yolk; ¼ cup very finely chopped peanuts; butter frosting.

Measure sifted flour; add baking powder, salt and sugar. Stir shortening, which has been at room temperature, just to soften. Sift in dry ingredients. Add milk and extracts and mix until all flour is dampened. Then beat 2

Carmel Realtors Plan Conference

George T. Conn and other officers of the Carmel Board of Realtors met with Burton E. Smith of Bellflower, president, H. Jackson Pontius, executive vice president, and members of the education committee of the 52,000-member California Real Estate Association recently to complete plans for the association's 1966 education activities in this area.

Mr. Conn announces that the Carmel Board of Realtors and the California Real Estate Association will co-sponsor an educational and sales conference, entitled "Real Estate Salesmanship," for local realtors and salesmen in Monterey at the Mark Thomas Inn on April 25.

"This conference is conducted to enable realtors and salesmen to update their knowledge of the fundamentals of listing and selling real estate," Mr. Conn says. "The CREA editorial board researched each of the subjects to be presented in order to present the 'here and now' of real estate selling. This conference will not only benefit the realtors and real estate salesmen who attend, but also the citizens of Carmel and Carmel Valley by assuring them professional service in the purchase and sale of real estate," he adds.

minutes at low speed of electric mixer. Add eggs and yolk and beat 1 minute longer. Stir in nuts. Pour batter into 9-inch tube pan lined on bottom with paper. Bake in 375 F. oven about 1 hour. Cool. Prepare butter frosting. Frost sides of cake, reserving part of frosting for decorations. Using red food coloring, tint 2/3 of remaining frosting deep pink. With point of knife, lightly mark lines on top of cake to make 8 equal wedge-shaped sections. Then fill in each section with pink or white frosting, alternating colors, to make top of cake resemble roof of carousel. To make edge of this roof, carve 8 scallops around sides of cake with knife. Next fill in with pink frosting. Decorate 8 assorted animal crackers with silver dragees and colored sugar. Place 8 colored straws or thin sticks of candy against sides of cake between scallops to resemble carousel poles. At lower end of each straw, place an animal cracker. Cut a pennant from brightly colored paper and paste on long stick. Insert stick in marshmallow and drop in center of hole in cake. This cake brings shrieks of delight. Serve with Neopolitan ice cream for a bangup finale.

THE VALUE OF A SPIRITUAL OUTLOOK

"vision"

Every day we depend on "vision" that goes beyond what our eyes see. The challenge is always to find a greater vision — a deeper spiritual perception — that will guide mankind's progress, and lift men everywhere into their heritage as children of God. Miss Lorie Simmons, Carmel High School history teacher (left), and Miss Nellie Ryder, high school librarian, hold a wire sculpture during preparations for the district-wide faculty art show tomorrow afternoon. All teachers in the Carmel Unified School District have been invited to contribute examples of their creative efforts in the fields of art, crafts and literature. State Senator Fred Farr will speak at the gathering which will be held in Brey Hall. The high school choir, under the direction of John Farr, will sing at the affair which will mark the start of a week's Easter vacation for faculty members of all schools, also enable the teachers of the district to know one another better. The art show was organized by William Stone, high school art teacher.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

Simma Holt worked for over seven years to collect the information needed to write her book about the Doukhobors. Everyone seems to have heard about the Doukhobors but actually not know much about them. According to Mrs. Holt, people tend to think of them as a religious sect whose members have a habit of parading in the nude when they want to protest anything. This is true, but it is also true that there is a Mafia-type fringe called the Sons of Freedom. The Sons practice bombing and setting fire to buildings when they decide anyone is their enemy. Their depredations have cost taxpayers millions of dollars. This is a real lunatic fringe, followed blindly by members of the sect. The book is called "TERROR IN THE NAME OF GOD." Truly, all the lunatics are not in mental hospitals. Some of them are living in British Columbia, free and nude.

The next book is textbook-type but necessary, especially for parents. In these days of television and toothpaste tests it is a good thing to be able to read a book which actually tells you who has 34 percent fewer cavities, and why. The title of the book is "FIFTY-TWO PEARLS AND THEIR ENVIRONMENT" and that might earn a prize for being the worst title of the year. It was written by a dentist named Joseph Muhler. He discusses everything about teeth from "Why Dental Health Education?" to "The Use of Fluorides in Dental Health and Nutrition." The main emphasis is on children's teeth and their care.

Now we have two books about teenage problems and what parents can do to help. The first one is by Thelma Purtell and is entitled "TONIGHT IS TOO LATE." This is a book about the problems of drugs, drinking, smoking, venereal diseases and pornography in teenage experience. The author is a past president of the Parents League of New York. It is quite possible that books like this one should be required reading for all parents. It is equally possible that few parents will read it even after seeing it mentioned in this column. The second book is called "TEEN-AGERS AND SEX: A GUIDE FOR PARENTS" and it was written by Bishop James Pike. He charts a course for parents starting with their children's earliest years. He speaks of sex education, of pre-marital sex experience, of venereal diseases, unwanted pregnancies, the entire sex spectrum. He writes with kindness and understanding. He seems to have seen it all and to have worked out satisfactory answers. This too should be required reading for parents.

We have John Hersey's new novel "TOO FAR TO WALK." Most of the reviews we have seen have been bad. The book jacket says Hersey "probes deeply, but with rich humor, into the aimlessness, boredom, and rebellion of a group of undergraduates in a New England college." Our own opinion is that he does nothing of the kind. You may enjoy it. It seems to be a new and weaker version of the old Faust theme.

Edward Fisher has done a trilogy of novels about Shakespeare, the last of which has just been published and is entitled "THE BEST HOUSE IN STRATFORD." The two earlier ones were "SHAKESPEARE AND SON" and "LOVE'S LABOUR WON." We have both of them and you may have read them. If so, you will be waiting for this last one. Fisher has an honest vigorous style and you will enjoy this one whether or not you read the earlier two. Not long, you could read all three of them in a seven-day charge period.

MPC INSTRUCTORS TO PUBLISH ANTHOLOGY

Dr. Idelle Sullens of Carmel and her co-authors, Mrs. Edith Karas and Raymond Fabrizio of Monterey, have signed a contract with D. C. Heath & Co. for publication of a reading anthology designed for the college-age student. The three Monterey Peninsula College instructors expect the anthology to be issued in early 1967.

This is the second book for Dr. Sullens, whose "Principals of Grammar" was published in February.

CRTA Area Council Meets April 14

Statewide as well as local chapter problems of the California Retired Teachers' Association will be discussed at an area council meeting for Monterey, Santa Cruz and San Benito counties to be held April 14 at Paine's Restaurant, East and Fourth streets, Hollister.

The morning session, beginning at 9:30, will be followed by luncheon at 12:15 p.m. In addition to a speaker, music will be provided by Gavilan College.

CRTA state officers will be in charge of the afternoon session from 1:30-3:00 o'clock, when they will discuss statewide problems.

All area county members are invited to attend. Reservations for luncheon, at $2.50 per person, must reach Mrs. Ralph P. Binkley, 157 Nash Road, Hollister (637-3349) by April 11. All reservations must be prepaid.

Janet Wilson

Private family services have been held for Mrs. Janet Bryce Wilson, a resident of Pebble Beach for the past 12 years, who died unexpectedly Sunday evening. The Red Cross ambulance operated by the Carmel Volunteer Fire Department, summoned on a medical emergency call, transported Mrs. Wilson to Community Hospital, where she was pronounced dead on arrival.

Born June 29, 1885, she was a native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Throughout her life, Mrs. Wilson was actively interested in art. She was a member of the Casa Abrego Club of Monterey and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

She leaves a son, Bryce Wilson of Portola Valley, and two grandchildren. Her husband, the late Henry Dalzell Wilson, died in Pittsburgh in 1946.

College Chorus Will Sing At All Saints'

The College Singers from California State College in Hayward will present a special Holy Week concert in All Saints' Episcopal Church on April 6 at 7:30 p.m.

Conducted by Lee Kjelson, the concert will feature major sections from Brahms "German Requiem." The chorus will be completing a spring tour of California when it arrives from Santa Barbara where it will have sung for the music educators' association convention. The singers have toured in Mexico at the invitation of the North American Mexican Institute of Culture. In January they sang for the opening California Legislature in Sacramento.

Donations in the memory of Mrs. Wilson may do so to charities of their choice.

The Mission Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Cast Of 'Guys And Dolls' Equal To Tingling Tunes, Stunning Sets

BY DOROTHY REED

One of the most enjoyable moments in theatre is the overture to a musical show—the lights go down, the orchestra strikes up, and the tunes roll out, giving a tantalizing foretaste of the pleasure to come. "Guys and Dolls," current production of the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School's Little Theatre, provides just such a prelude to tingling anticipation and goes on to justify every tingle.

"Guys and Dolls" is filled with wonderful music, and the 12th Naval District Band plays it with full effect. The songs by Frank Loesser have been popular for 15 years and they wear very well. The story, adapted by Abe Burrows and Jo Swerling from a collection of tales by Damon Runyon, deals with tough but tender-hearted Broadway characters that were Runyon's specialty.

The sets by Bob Beers are stunning, especially the opening scene on New York's most famous street. Costumes by Sara Crandall and Mary Hansen cleverly update the play right to the minute. The Salvation Army, it must be admitted, hasn't done much for feminine glamour in recent years, and Sarah Brown, the mission doll who falls in love with the gambling guy, Sky Masterson, gets little help from her uniform. He would never have noticed her except on a bet, and that's how it happens.

Billie Southern, who plays Sarah, is at her best in a wild scene in a Cuban night club where her inhibitions have been conquered by a native drink containing a flavoring called Bacardi. Otherwise her acting and gestures are pretty stiff, even for a third-generation missionary.

Mike Shortal as Sky is very amiable, perhaps a little too much so for the hardened gambler of the story. He looks perfectly natural at the denouement beating the bass drum in the Mission band.

The other romantic couple includes Nathan Detroit, operator of the "oldest established permanent floating crap-game in New York" who can never take time off from business long enough to get married, and Adelaide, his faithful fiancée of 14 years' standing whose longing for full housewife status is making her ill. "Adelaide's Lament" is a tour de force on Loesser's part—he can set the words "psychosomatic symptoms, toxic and hypertense" to music for a night club entertainer to sing, and they come out without strain.

Like Sky, John Bartocci as Nathan seems to bear the stigma of domesticity from the very beginning; it is only a matter of time. Adelaide's occupation as a dancer gives the opportunity for two very pleasant ensemble numbers; Pat McGarvey plays Adelaide and grows more plausible with each scene after a somewhat shrill opening.

Among the many able supporting players, two need special mention: J. C. Hale as Harry the Horse is the perfect embodiment of a race-track tout and racketeer's yes-man; Lee Hallier as General Matilda B. Cartwright is absolutely intimidating as a missionary battle-ax first class.

Dale Lefler's choreography is especially outstanding in the "Crap Game Dance" performed by the men who have taken over a sewer as the last possible place to hold their game without police interference. The girls' dances are considerably more routine.

Director Rhea Diveley and Musical Director Richard Sheere have synchronized the acting and singing so as to minimize the awkwardness of bursting into song, and have preserved the identity of the minor characters so that they never become merely the chorus.

It seems a great shame that such a satisfying production should run only two weekends. It will be repeated tomorrow and Saturday nights in King Hall at the Naval School.

Carmel Resident Gives Books To USF

A distinguished educator in the fields of health, physical education and recreation who has lived in Carmel for the past 22 years, Dr. Jesse Feiring Williams, has presented his entire professional library to San Francisco State College. Announcement of the gift was made last week by the acting president of USF, Stanley Paulson.

Dr. Williams has received every honor awarded by the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation and served as president of this organization for two years. He is the author or co-author of 41 textbooks in his fields and used photographs of Carmel High School students to illustrate one of his books.

His professional career began at Oberlin College in 1907. He later taught at Columbia University's Teachers College and was granted the rank of professor emeritus when he retired in 1941.

For two years before coming to live here in 1944, Dr. Williams was professor of health and physical education at the University of North Carolina. He is a graduate of Oberlin College and Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons. Oberlin awarded him an honorary Sc.D. in 1956.

In Carmel, Dr. Williams has served as a member of the planning commission, took an active interest in the founding of the Carmel Presbyterian Church and was chosen to break ground for the construction of the church building.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

"Unreality" will be the subject of the services which will be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

A Bible reference taken from the 51st Psalm includes verse 10 which reads: "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me."

A related passage from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is as follows: "God, Spirit, alone created all, and called it good. Therefore evil, being contrary to good, is unreal, and cannot be the product of God. A sinner can receive no encouragement from the fact that Science demonstrates the unreality of evil, for the sinner would make a reality of sin,—would make that real which is unreal, and thus heap up 'wrath against the day of wrath.' He is joining in a conspiracy against himself,—against his own awakening to the awful unreality by which he has been deceived. Only those, who repent of sin and forsake the unreal, can fully understand the unreality of evil."

Monterey County Symphony Conductor John Gosling and Mrs. Gosling (left) are seen talking to (left to right) Walter Burde, Howard Bucquet, Mrs. Bucquet and Mrs. Burde at the reception in La Playa Hotel honoring piano virtuoso Rudolf Firkusny who earlier in the evening had won a standing ovation for his performance of Beethoven's Concerto No. 4 (the Emperor), high point of the Monterey County Symphony's fourth concert of their 20th anniversary season. Bicycle Races Sunday In Del Monte Forest

The first event of the Northern California Bicycling Season is set for Sunday over a winding 4½ mile course in Del Monte Forest, Pebble Beach.

Sponsored by the Cypress Cycling Club, the event will start at 9 a.m., with a veterans race (for men over 40). This race will be followed by a 15-mile race for intermediate racers (12-15 years) and a junior event (15-18 years) of 25 miles. Competition will end with a 50-mile race for seniors (18 years and over).

More than 100 riders are expected from all over Northern California. They are members of the Amateur Bicycle League of America.

Bob Tetzlaff of Los Gatos, who was on the 1960 Olympic Team and won the world championship twice, is expected to be here, as well as Lt. George Von Meter of Fort Ord, who was also a 1960 Olympic Team member and a member of the "Tour of Mexico" two years ago.

Entries may be made by writing to Oliver Bradford, president of the Cypress Cycling Club, 501 Camino Agujito, Monterey and post entries will be accepted.

Shown in South Seas costumes for "A Night in Tahiti" are, from left, standing, John Dowdakin, Henri Corbat, master of ceremonies, and Chuck Wood. Seated are Mrs. Sorin Issvoran and Mrs. Corbat. The delightful March 18 event at Mark Thomas' Outrigger, sponsored by l'Alliance Francaise of the Monterey Peninsula, was pronounced "un success fou" by all who attended.

In a setting of tropical decor, colorfully garbed guests danced to the music of Mike Marotta's ensemble and enjoyed a delicious and specially prepared luau-buffet.

Awards for costumes, judged by Leonard Heller, Howard Allen, Gaspard Weiss, Ruth Warshawsky and Barnet Segal, were received by Dr. Peter Mutke, a sarong-clad native dancer, first prize for men; Mrs. Howard Allen, an English gentlewoman tourist, first for women; John Dowdakin, most original islander; Marcelle Knaus, a lovely hula dancer who demonstrated her ability to everyone's applause; Mr. and Mrs. George Podbereski, best couple in their amusing and clever native costumes; and Mrs. Shirley Bass, a fashionable lady in the tropics.

Mrs. Barbara Wright won the diamond wrist watch which Henri Corbat, l'Alliance president, had donated as a door prize. The party was such fun that l'Alliance members are planning to repeat it at the same place and time next year. Mrs. John Dowdakin, general chairman, her assistant, Mrs. James Hathaway, and Mr. Corbat made the gala evening one long to remember.

Great Books Group Certified Leaders

A group of Peninsula teachers and parents has completed the eight-weeks training course sponsored and organized by the Lyceum for leaders of Junior Great Books Discussion groups. A staff representative of the Great Books Foundation of Chicago was in charge of the series. Those meeting the requirements of the foundation have been certified as discussion leaders for programs of literary classics for use in grades 5-12.

Carmel Middle School teachers who completed the course are Miss Sally McPhail, Miss Nancy Loyd, Miss Christine Daly, Miss Jo Brazell and Mrs. Beatrice Picard. Parents from Carmel Mission School who are certified are Mrs. Mary Bray, Mrs. Allan Hudson and Mrs. John Mahoney.

A number of leaders are beginning discussion groups soon. Others will be available for interested groups. The Lyceum will provide information and assist in securing leaders. For information call Miss Eleanore Ziel (375-4549) or Mrs. John Everett (394-7590).

Explorarama Film Will Feature Italy

"Italy" a new prize winning film from the European travel festivals will be screened at 8:15 p.m. on Wednesday at Sunset Center auditorium as part of the current Explorarama-Carmel series of travel-adventure films.

The color film has stereophonic musical backgrounds and will be narrated in person by its photographer, Carl Thompson.

Highlights will include ancient, medieval, and modern Italy from Rome and all its wonders to the ruins of Pompeii. Other film highlights will be the Leaning Tower of Pisa, Vesuvius, Gulf of Salerno, the Isle of Capri, Florence, Sicily, Venice, Naples, Sardinia and the beautiful Italian Lakes.

Tickets ($1.75) are available at Central Box Office. Proceeds are used to provide science scholarships.

Elsie Bell

Funeral services for Mrs. Elsie Skaats Bell, who died March 24 in a local hospital after a lengthy illness, were held Saturday in the Church of the Wayfarer with the Reverend Alexander C. Bryans and Dr. K. Fillmore Gray, former pastor, officiating.

A resident of Carmel for the past 15 years, Mrs. Bell was born in San Francisco on October 13, 1882. With the exception of a few years in Oregon, California was her home during her entire life.

Mrs. Bell leaves a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Park of Carmel; and two brothers, Chester B. Noyes of Berkeley and Richard Noyes of Cayucos. Her husband, the late Henry R. Bell, died in 1960.

Inurnment took place in the Rock Garden of El Carmelo Cemetery. The Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Those wishing to make contributions in the memory of Mrs. Bell may do so to Central Mission Trails Heart Association, Box 191, Monterey, or to the Wayfarer Church garden fund.

Article On Dr. Farley

Dr. Fred L. Farley of Carmel Point was featured in an article in Together, national family magazine of the Methodist Church. Entitled "He's Not the Retiring Kind," the article received worldwide distribution and was greatly appreciated by Dr. Farley's former students at the University of the Pacific, as well as by members of the Church of the Wayfarer.

Mrs. McCord Joins White Oaks Board

New member of the White Oaks Theatre board of directors present at last week's meeting was Mrs. Gina McCord, who has taken the position of director of future development for the Carmel Valley repertory training company.

Producer Sally Hughes Church announced as well Meredith Willson's new position on the theatre's advisory board of directors. The composer, noted for his musical comedy "The Music Man," was guest speaker at last summer's dedication of the new White Oaks plant.

Mrs. McCord, who resides in Los Angeles, has been involved there in publicity and public relations work in the entertainment industry. Like Mr. Willson, she became interested in the local theatre last summer when she coordinated publicity for the dedication.

Continuing members of the board are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Blevens, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crispo, Miss Barbara Cook, Mrs. C. L. Washburn, Jack Abramson, Will Fay, Jerry Fenton, Ron Mitchell, Dr. William Pratt, F. D. Tellwright, and Miss Church.

Advisory board members are Mr. and Mrs. Thomson Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kutschera, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Storch, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Walker, Miss Julie Harris, Mrs. Bruce Church, Jerry Blunt, Martin Flavin, Jules Irving, Stanley Kramer, J. Fenton McKenna, Francis X. Mohan, and Alan G. Pattee.

Walter Tittle

Funeral services for Walter Ernest Tittle, internationally known artist and writer, were held yesterday at the Church of the Wayfarer with the Reverend Alexander C. Bryans officiating. Mr. Tittle, 82, died Sunday after an extended illness.

As a youth, Mr. Tittle studied art in New York under Robert Henri, William M. Chase and Luis Mora and became a prominent illustrator for magazines and numerous books. As the official artist for the 25 world statesmen-delegates to the Washington Conference on Limitation of Armaments after World War I, he received high acclaim.

Among the many distinguished people whose portraits he painted and about whom he wrote were George Bernard Shaw, Joseph Conrad, Will Rogers, Amy Lowell, Edwin Arlington Robinson and Jascha Heifitz. He did portraits of five presidents, William H. Taft, Woodrow Wilson, Warren Harding, Calvin Coolidge and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Mr. Tittle is represented by works in many collections, including the Library of Congress, the British Museum, Bibliotheque Nationale, New York Public Library and the National Gallery in Washington, D.C. A number of his early illustrations may be seen in the Robert Louis Stevenson house in Monterey.

Surviving are his wife, Helen Carr Tittle of Carmel, and a sister, Blanche Tittle of Dayton, Ohio.

The Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Friends wishing to make contributions in memory of Mr. Tittle may do so to Moral Re-Armament or "Sing Out '66."

this and future councils that if ever the need should justify it, a complete civic center, including a city hall, could be accommodated on the property, and that any buildings erected at this time would fit into such an ultimate development. In other words, the city should consider possible future needs as well as the immediate needs of today. Such a site development plan was prepared. It provides for both the immediate and the possible future needs of the city.

In June of 1965 the city council considered the moving of city hall to Sunset, in order to help defray the cost of the proposed building for the police station. At that time the council agreed to keep city hall where it is but again to consider such a move in June of 1966. Financing of the proposed building can be accomplished without the sale of the present city hall.

In open and public meetings over a period of more than two years, the city council has agreed that:

- The need for a new police station is immediate and critical.
- The Junipero and Fourth site is the best site for that purpose.
- The corporation yard can initially be provided for on the same site. If and when a better location is found for the yard, the space provided in the present plan can be converted to public parking.
- The construction of the police station and corporation yard at Junipero and Fourth can be accomplished, without any increase in property taxes, by using motel tax funds, and the sale of the present police station. The council felt that in this way the visitors to Carmel will be paying for some of the extra burden they place on municipal departments and facilities by their presence in the city.

If a city hall should ever be added to the "Civic Center" site, it would be built primarily on the remaining open land, not on top of the police station and corporation yard. The presently proposed buildings are designed to stand alone and serve their intended purposes, whether or not a city hall is ever built on the site. No city council, including the present one, has made any commitment regarding the building of a new city hall, except to assure itself and the public that the proposed construction of "Phase I" of the Civic Center would not in any way interfere with any such possible future development.

The city council is also considering the sale of the present police station property at Mission and Seventh, as a means for partially financing the new police station. Over a year ago the planning commission studied all city-owned properties and advised the city council that this one site is the only piece of city-owned property that has on appreciable future value to the city. It was agreed that the site is not of a size to justify construction of public parking facilities. Further, it was recognized that there is considerable space available at Sunset for parking—only one block further away from the center of town. Thus far there has been no public interest in the development of off-street parking at Sunset.

These then are the basic facts. I do not presume to judge whether or not the city council has acted wisely, but I can attest that every decision of the council has been made only after very thorough public consideration of all of the available information, while following all procedures required by state and local law.

With equal knowledge of the facts, the public can decide whether or not the council has acted wisely and in the best interests of the citizens of Carmel.

AS VARIED AS A BASKET OF EASTER EGGS

CARMEL TODAY: The prettiest egg in the basket. That lovely new house green with white trim, on East side of Mission between Alta and Vista. All white and gold interior with exquisite cabinet work throughout. White adobe fireplace separates bright, light living room from formal dining room. Terrific value at $38,500.

CARMEL OF YESTERDAY: For lease furnished the perfect house for two or three adults who know and appreciate "old Carmel." Separate dining room. Sun-deck. Seclusion. Near beach and village. South of Ocean Ave. $220 mo. includes gardener. Available on long term basis.

ANOTHER BRIGHT COLORED EGG IN CARMEL: Bright because it is such a conveniently planned and located two bedroom, two bath house built by Pat North which is a recommendation equal to the word "sterling." West side San Carlos, South of 13th. Couldn't be built today in that location for asking price $36,500.

MISSION FIELDS has an Easter egg, too, which your children will love. Big fenced yard. Three bedrooms. Two baths. Family room. GE kitchen. Listed at $27,500 and offer might be accepted.

MONTEREY-SALINAS HI-WAY: We invite offers for that acre of land with three bedroom house that Mr. Ed has recommended so highly. Listed at $26,500.

MONTEREY: Don't wait until all the houses reflecting early Spanish influence have been snatched up. Jump quick like a bunny, at the chance to buy this rare replica, modernized throughout creating a distinct home for a Gentleman and his Lady who appreciate quality and the unusual and who enjoy entertaining. $55,000.

MONTEREY BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY: May be the brightest egg of all for one or two women tired of the stresses and strains of their professional careers and who want to "Strike it rich" while they "take it easy." Cheery shop in strategic location with entrances on both Munras and Abrego Sts. Specializes in maternity wear and nurses uniforms. Babies, bless them, are ever with us and Mamma's need maternity dresses. Then think of the increased need for nurse's uniforms created by all the new hospital and infirmary facilities on the Peninsula. Here is your chance, to buy a well established business, with an excellent lease and option for renewal, for only $6000 plus inventory at time of sale.

COLOR US UNDECIDED!

We started out to feature a "Buy of the Week," but everyone had a different idea.

FRAN SAYS it's the COMPLETE home for a retired couple which she is offering in the Country Club: cart storage in the garage, close to the Dunes course. Freshly decorated inside and out, it's as fresh as the flowers in the colorful garden. And close to shopping. And priced at just $37,500.

GUY KNOWS it is an interesting new house on a level, wooded lot with a small view of Pt. Lobos, a really well constructed, really charming house by an experienced builder, and is located in a nice section of Hatton Fields and is only \$49,500 for the 3 bedrooms, 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ baths, full dining room, fully carpeted, unusual fireplace, etc. etc.

FLORENCE NOMINATES a 3 bedroom, 2 bath home with ADOBE interior and exterior with a beautiful view of the Valley hills, only 6 blocks to Tularcitos school, wonderful place to add a pool, and its priced at just $35,000.

TYI FEELS that a young couple could really do things with our miniature adobe hacienda to expand it from its one bedroom to a real family home. It's on a full acre of beautiful Valley oaks and sunshine and it's only $26,000.

HANK CAN'T decide which is best: the cute cabin on Palo Colorado creek on its acre of forest primeval, for only $15,950, or the parcel of three building sites on Garrapata Creek priced at $5,500 for the package.

OUR SECRETARY, RUTH, says a home and income just a block and a half from the Pine Inn at $25,500 just HAS to be the best buy.

DUFFY, our mascot, thinks the new listing in the Valley which backs up to acres of permanent green belt is the greatest: all that meadow and lovely trees with the flowers and birds ABSOLUTELY FREE with the most fascinating house he's ever seen for only $55,000.

LOIS KNOWS FOR SURE: We certainly do have some interesting and well priced homes to show you right now!

Trustees Request Taxpayers Group To Present Plan

Chairman Dr. Robert E. Newton postponed detailed discussion on this matter and the board reviewed the total financial picture of the district instead after Mr. Bair said,

"It is useless to talk about salaries until we do this."

Albert Kolb, speaking for the teachers' salary committee, told the board that this committee, yesterday afternoon, determined to adhere to its request for a higher salary scale, plus medical benefits, next year but promised that teachers would be willing to teach larger classes in order to ease the district's financial straits.

"Increased class size is the price we are prepared to pay, but as professional teachers, we believe in a salary scale that will keep the best teachers," Mr. Kolb said.

In regard to the effect of the override defeat on class size, Mr. Bair stated that he had directed Warren Edwards, principal of Carmel High School, to prepare to operate on a seven-period day next year. This will mean fewer subject choices and result in fewer teachers. The assignment of teachers of English will be increased, too. They will be required to teach five instead of four periods per day. There will be no classes of less than 15 students, unless approved by the board, and average class size will be 25-30 students.

At Middle School, the program and number of periods will be essentially the same as this year but there will be one or two more students in each class. Most classes, however, will be below 30 students.

In the district's elementary schools class sizes will average 27 or 28 students, he predicted.

Considering transportation, the board decided purchase of a new bus and provision of all school bus service, except that which is legally required, might have to be eliminated. This would, maybe, cut $50,000 from costs in this category.

Such a cut might mean that some children in the district will not be able to attend school, Trustee Dr. Hilton Bialek noted.

The board considered elimination of the interscholastic athletic program which would save $17,000, a cost approximating the salaries of two teachers. Colonel Emory S. Adams and Mrs. Romaine Hill protested this proposal.

"We have to make painful choices," Trustee Steven Sassoon told them and added that it was a question of athletics or large class size. "I hate to see this cut but teacher standards must come first," Trustee Mrs. Roxanna Blanks added.

In the discussion on cuts in in-service training for teachers, Mr. Bair observed the elementary summer school program would cost $18,000 but bring the district a possible grant of $140,000. The high school summer program, cost $12,000, could be eliminated because Carmel district students could attend summer classes in other Peninsula districts.

Operation costs could be cut one-third by not providing replacements for custodians on vacation, Mr. Bair said, and more data was needed before maintenance and repair costs could be considered. Replacements for some equipment at the high school "before it blows up" was not now assured because of the override defeat.

The consensus of the board was that closing Palo Colorado School to save $1,000, also to free one teacher to teach in another school was, perhaps, not desirable economy, unless trouble with the down-coast school's well proves to be expensive.

Failure of the override to pass will mean eight needed teachers cannot be employed next year, the board indicated. Mr. Bair stated that replacements for 15 teachers who are either resigning or have been granted leave, will be needed

UFO Seen Over Carmel

The first report of an unidentified flying object in Carmel was reported to the Pine Cone this week when Miss Jeanne Hughes, a resident of the Mayfair Apartments on Lincoln Street, told about seeing "a round grey object, tinged with blue" in the sky two weeks ago.

According to Miss Hughes, she went outside about 9 p.m. on a clear, starlit night. She looked up and saw the UFO, for some time, travelling in circles and making no noise. From her close observation point, the object dipped below the Nielsen building on Dolores Street, reappeared, then finally disappeared out of her sight which was blocked by the grocery store.

"I didn't say anything about it at first," Miss Hughes stated. However, this week she decided that the UFO should be reported as she is a believer in interplanetary travel by unidentified flying objects and this is the first time she has seen one over Carmel.

next year. He added that, as yet, this is a tentative figure as more resignations may be forthcoming.

Before the April 13 study session on budget cuts which must be made because of the failure of the override, at the request of the board, Mr. Bair will prepare detailed data on 1966-67 budget items and gross and net costs in every budget area, also further information on class sizes and class loads.

This is the meeting to which the taxpayers association will be asked to aid the board.

Here From Hawaii

Walter Stuefloten leaves tomorrow to return to Kona Plantation on the Island of Hawaii after a short visit in Carmel. His wife, Ellen, remained on the Kona Coast while her husband attended to business matters here.

Word From Bob Carney

In a telephone message to Carmel this week, Robert Carney sent greetings to all his friends. He is now serving as an officer on a U.S. merchant marine vessel which stopped in San Francisco for two days on a return trip from Vietnam. The ship is now on its way to New York and from there will sail to Europe. The briefness of the San Francisco stop did not allow Bob to come home to Carmel.

His wife, Eleanor, will pursue her interest in American Indian tribes in Tucson, Arizona, and take courses pertaining to this interest at the University of Arizona, between flying to meet her husband when he arrives in West Coast ports.

Vietnamese Child 'Adopted'

Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Sweeney of Carmel have "adopted" Do Thi Trong, a 12-year-old, destitute Vietnamese girl through Foster Parents' Plan, Inc. Do Thi Trong replaces another girl in Vietnam who was adopted financially by the Sweeneys a few years ago but who no longer needs the plan's help.

A photograph and case history of each child is sent to foster parents, followed by a monthly exchange of letters.

Since the organization employs no fund raisers, its publicity is limited. Anyone wishing to sponsor a needy child may obtain information from Foster Parents' Plan Inc., 352 Park Avenue South, New York, N.Y. 10010

For many years during their student days in Carmel schools, Joan Felder, Erica Steinberger, Lois Watson and Karen Walker observed their March birthdays with a joint celebration, usually a very special one arranged with the help of their respective parents. Graduation from Carmel High School last June brought the inevitable separation of the four-some, but Joan and Erica carried on the tradition this month for their 18th birthdays.

Joan, now at U.C. Davis, and her mother, Mrs. Charles Felder, and Erica, a student at Occidental College, and her mother, Mrs. Ilse B. Steinberger, met in San Francisco for a round of activities equal to the important occasion. They indulged their appetites in some of the city's best restaurants, saw "The Odd Couple" and heard the Modern Jazz Quartet at Basin Street West. Once again they dined at Omar Khayyam's, where owner George Mardikian not only serenaded them but sent them on their way loaded down with rose petal preserves and other delicacies.

A pleasant surprise, Mrs. Felder said, was to find Mrs. Joseph Stilwell of Carmel seated at the adjoining table with a party of friends.

Guests From Connecticut

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Cochran III have as their guests at their Pebble Beach home Mrs. Cochran's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. David D. Gray of Greenwich, Connecticut. Vacationing with the Grays are their two daughters, Joan and Lynn.

Home For Easter

Virginia von Hasseln is home from Bennett College in North Carolina to spend the Easter holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edmund von Hasseln, and her sister, Louise, at the family home in Rancho Agujito.

Post Office Planter Called 'Disgraceful'

After hearing a letter, in which Miss Marjorie Fontana deplored the "disgraceful" condition of the planter box in front of the Carmel Post Office, planning commissioners last week decided to send a letter to the owner of the post office building, Mrs. P. C. Lee, asking if the planting in the raised brick planter could be better cared for.

In a communication from Mrs. Lee in 1961, Carmel planning commissioners were informed that she did not think it her responsibility to police the landscaping, which had been planted as required by the city code, from public abuse.

VICTORY DINNER FOR BASKETBALL CHAMPS

Members of the Carmel Youth Center basketball team, champions in the Monterey Peninsula Youth Center Basketball League, received trophies at a victory dinner last week. Enjoying the smorgasbord feast were Ty Seeders, Kim Roberts, Ron Parsons, Ross Allen, Rick Olsen, Josh Feurman, Brian McEldowney Scott Hill, Bob Sinclair, Doug Adams, Bucky Bucquet and Randy Newman.

The team is now looking forward to defending its Socko Softball League championship.
